

Cookies policy

In compliance with the duty of information contained in section 2 of article 22 of Law 34/2002, of July 11, on Services of the Information Society and Electronic Commerce, this cookie policy has for the purpose of informing you clearly and precisely about the cookies used on the SANDRA LLUSA website.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file that web sites send to your browser and download to your computer. Cookies allow the website to store and retrieve information about your visit, such as your preferred language and other options, in order to improve the services offered and contribute to a better browsing experience for the user.

Types of cookies

There are many types of cookies, depending on their purpose and the time that they remain stored in the user's browser (there are some that are only installed during the session and others that can remain for years (persistent cookies)). These criteria, there are cookies that require the consent of the user of the website and others that do not (excepted cookies).

The excepted cookies are, among others, those that are essential so that the user's computer and the servers of www.sandrallusa.com can communicate with each other and allow the user to navigate the web page in a more efficient way. fast, without collecting protected data on it.

Depending on who manages the domain from where the cookies are sent and the data is processed, it will be distinguished between own cookies and cookies that belong to third parties. Finally, depending on the purpose for which the information collected is processed, cookies can be classified into the following categories:

- Technical cookies: allow the user to browse a website and use some of the services offered by it (such as, for example, control traffic and data communication, identify the session, access parts of access restricted, remember the elements that make up an order, carry out the process of buying an order, make the request for registration or participation in an event, use security elements during navigation, store content for the diffusion of videos or sound or share content through social networks.)
- Personalization cookies: They allow the user to access the website with certain characteristics, such as the language.
- Security cookies: they serve to prevent or hinder attacks against the website.
- Analytical cookies: allow the person in charge or third parties to monitor user behavior, as well as quantify the number of users, carry out statistical measurement and analysis of the use made by users of the service offered. For this, your browsing on the website is analyzed in order to improve the offer of products or services offered by www.sandrallusa.com.
- Advertising cookies: allow the management of advertising spaces based on specific criteria. For example, access frequency, edited content, etc. Advertising cookies allow through advertising management to store behavioral information through observation of habits, studying the accesses and forming a profile of user preferences, to offer advertising related to the interests of their profile.

- Behavioral cookies: are those that, well processed by www.sandrallusa.com or by third parties, allow the most efficient management of the offer of advertising spaces on the website, adapting the content of the advertisement to the content of the service requested or to the use made by the user of the website. To do this, SANDRA LLUSA can analyze the user's browsing habits on the Internet and show them advertising related to their browsing profile.
- Geolocation cookies: used to find out the country where the user is.
